Nations

"Moral decline - along with massive debt - has contributed to the collapse of great nations in the past. If a foundation is defective, any house built on it will likely experience distress. What makes us think we can escape the judgment of history and avoid a similar fate? A house and its foundation must be maintained ... So must America." - copied, Cal Thomas, The Wrong Road: the Decline of a Nation

They Have to Believe in Something!

"The second Gallup poll found belief in the existence of God has reached a new low. 81 percent of those surveyed said they believe in God, but the number is down six points from a consistent 87 percent ... between 2013 and 2017. The two polls should be seen as related. When a vacuum is created, pressure builds from the outside to fill it. If growing numbers of people don't believe in God, they have to believe in something. Without a power to restrain humankind from our lower nature, anything goes! Is this where we want to be and is this the direction in which we wish to be headed?" - ibid

SANCTUARY IN GOD

"Where can anyone flee in any need, or when in danger of sin, Satan, ... except to God? 'What time I am afraid,' David said, 'I will trust in thee' (Psalm 56:3). When you take sanctuary in God, you can rest assured He will not betray you to the enemy. Your willing dependence upon Him awakens His almighty power for your defense as surely as a newborn's cry awakens its mother, regardless of the hour. He has sworn the greatest oath that can come from His sacred lips: that all who flee to their hope in Him for refuge, shall have strong consolation (Hebrews 6:17, 18) This should embolden your faith to expect a kind of haven when you turn to God for protection ... Christ's presence and activity in heaven remind God of His commitment to defend His saints ... Although Christ sits in His exalted position ... out of the storm in regard to His own safety, yet His children are left behind in combat with Satan. They remain in His heart, and He will not forget them for a moment."
(William Gurnall, The Christian in Complete Armour, p 49-50)

PANTHEISM

"Pantheism has become the inheritance of every nation on earth and has cursed the streams of human thought beyond all estimation. It assumes the eternity of matter and the absurdity that matter has power to originate life and spirit. In its idealistic form it contradicts human consciousness and destroys the very ground upon which reason is based ... There is no recognition of the fact that God is infinite while creation is finite; that God is omnipotent ('all-powerful') while creation is impotent; that God is immutable ('unchangeable') while creation is mutable; that God is eternal while creation experiences both birth and death. Though it recognizes a 'god' such as human speculation conceives, pantheism is the mother of atheism and the grossest idolatry.

It is promoting the notion that matter is God and God is matter and is a short step from this to the assertion, of the 'fool', that there is no God (Psalm 14:1; 53:1). It is but a step ... to the worship of any inanimate or animate thing, since the theory contends that it is all part of God. The system leads to blasphemy and licentiousness.

The basis of every moral distinction obliterated by it."
- Chafer Systematic Theology p 174-175

"The devil may tempt us,
the flesh may tempt us,
the world may tempt us,
but it is we ourselves
who sin."

A Good Question

"When someone says,
'I do not believe that there is anything beyond death.'

Ask them,
'Can you prove it ?' "

"For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord;
and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake."

All True

"I do not believe that, from one cover to the other, there is any mistake in it - the Bible - of any sort whatever, either upon natural or physical science, or upon history or anything whatever. I am prepared to believe whatever it says, and to take it believing it to be the Word of God; for if it is not all true, it is not worth one solitary penny to me. It may be to the man who is so wise that he can pick out the true from the false; but I am such a fool that I could not do that. If I do not have a guide there that is infallible, I would as soon guide myself, for I shall have to do so after all; I shall have to be correcting the blunders of my guide perpetually, but I am not qualified to do that, and so I am worse off than if I had not any guide at all. Sit thou down, Reason, and let Faith rise up." - copied

What is TRANSGRESSION?

"What does 'Transgression' mean?"

It means rebellion, it means the uprising of the will against authority, and especially a person of authority. 'Blot out my transgressions' (Psalm 51).

David admits he has transgressed ... rebelled against an authority ... His own will has risen up within himself and he has asserted himself.

Transgression means a desire to have our own way, a desire to do what we want to do, what we like doing.

It involves a deliberate choice, it involves an act of active defiance. It always means that we do something that our own conscience tells us to be wrong. It is a willful, deliberate act of disobedience, a violation of authority ... Every man who repents realizes that he is guilty of that."

- Martin Lloyd-Jones, 'Out of the Depths, the Sinner's Confession'

A Serious WARNING to the Unconverted

"... think about the fact that while you remain unconverted, you grow more and more hardened in sin each day. God forsakes you more and more. The Spirit withdraws from you. Continuing in sin will make you worse and worse. Remember that the further you go in an unconverted state, the greater will be your punishment.

God offers you ... happiness, and you could have it. But you keep yourself from having this happiness by rejecting conversion.

You could have God instead of the world, Christ instead of sinful self, and the Holy Spirit instead of Satan who deceives you.

You could have holiness instead of wickedness, justification instead of condemnation, blessings instead of a curse, peace of conscience instead of terror or false security. You don't really know what you lose every day by staying unconverted. You lose more than all the pleasures of sin can give you.

If you only knew how dangerous it is to go on like you are, you would leave your sinful life as quickly as a man would run out of a house on fire, or as a man would leave a boat sinking in the sea, knowing that if he did not hurry to get to shore, he would be drowned.

As long as you remain unconverted, you live in continual rebellion against God. You reject His mercy. You prefer the world of sin to Him.

I have now showed you the dangers of remaining unconverted. If you dare to go on in unbelief, and carelessly reject what I said - if God leaves you to yourself, or death comes to you while you are still lost - then you have no one to blame but yourself."

- Richard Baxter (1615-1691),
"I preach ... as a dying man to dying men."

"The GOSPEL is not simply a statement of facts to be believed, but a Person to be obeyed."

Nine Great Ideas - all Mine!

1. My idea of visitation - everyone come to see me.
2. My idea of sympathy - everybody suffering with me.
3. My idea of a sinner - the person for whom I have a great dislike.
4. My idea of a meek man - the man who yields to me.
5. My idea of a contentious man - the man who argues with me.
6. My idea of a wise man - the man who listens to me.
7. My idea of unity - everybody agreeing with me.
8. My idea of cooperation - everybody working for me.
9. My idea of a good sermon - one that fits and hits everybody but me!"
